Christ is Born! Glorify Him!

December 2020

Wisdom of the Fathers

*Blessed be the Child Who today delights Bethlehem. * Blessed be the Newborn Who today made humanity young again. * Blessed be the Fruit Who bowed Himself down for our hunger. * Blessed be the Gracious One who suddenly enriched all of our poverty and filled our need. * Blessed be He Whose mercy inclined Him to heal our sickness.*

St. Ephrem the Syrian – from Hymn 3 On the Nativity

Angel Tree

St. Andrew's will sponsor an Angel Tree again this year for 25 needy residents of Harbor Health Nursing Home! Because of the covid restrictions, we will not have a tree with Angels to choose from, but rather, we will do all online, by email and Signup Genius. The list of names/gifts will be out sometime this week, along with instructions. Thank you all for your continued love, support and enthusiasm for this most worthy project!

Did you know?

- Our mortgage will soon be fully paid off, thanks to the generosity of Ray and Carol Wasilko. Upon her passing, Carol left a sizable bequest to St. Andrew's. The bulk of it will pay off our mortgage and the remainder will establish an unrestricted endowment fund in their names. May their memory be eternal!
- Advent/Christmas Fast continues until we celebrate the Nativity of Christ. Pick up a copy of the Fasting Guidelines in the foyer.
- When making a contribution to St. Andrew's, please remember to write the purpose of your donation on the check or offering envelope, so your generosity can be properly applied. Thank you!
- Post-Communion Prayers are being read immediately following every Divine Liturgy, while the faithful are being dismissed. Please remember to save your greetings until you exit the nave, proceeding quietly and respectfully. You are encouraged to return to your seat to pray with us in thanksgiving for the Holy Gifts.

Children's Liturgy

Unfortunately, because of covid, we cannot celebrate the Nativity of Christ with the children in the ways we have in the past. With that in mind, we WILL celebrate it in the ways that we can!! On Saturday, December 19, at 10 am, St. Andrew's will offer a special Divine Liturgy for the children and their families. (Of course, all are welcome). We also hope to have a visit from St. Nicholas and a surprise for each of the children attending!

Please save this date! We are looking forward to seeing you all on the 19th!! More information will be coming. Please contact Joy Smith at joy@niden.net with any questions.

Christ is Born!

Glorify Him!

We miss you! Church services are on!
We look forward to seeing you soon!

Time to think Stewardship!

Pledges for 2021 are now being received.

MANY THANKS for your pledges to support Christ and Orthodoxy through St. Andrew's. God bless you for your generosity!

If you have not received a stewardship packet, please pick one up in the foyer.

God bless all our Faithful Stewards!

Thank you for continuing to send in your generous offerings during this unusual time. Your support continues to be needed as we bear witness to Christ in our community and provide a place of worship for the Orthodox faithful.

Stewardship in Action

Many thanks to all who are ushering and disinfecting during and after our services, and to the Men's Fellowship for weekly cleaning!

On the Holy Scriptures

It were indeed meet for us not at all to require the aid of the written Word, but to exhibit a life so pure, that the grace of the Spirit should be instead of books to our souls, and that as these are inscribed with ink, even so should our hearts be with the Spirit. But, since we have utterly put away from us this grace, come, let us at any rate embrace the second best course.

For that the former was better, God hath made manifest, both by His words, and by His doings. Since unto Noah, and unto Abraham, and unto his offspring, and unto Job, and unto Moses too, He discoursed not by writings, but Himself by Himself, finding their mind pure. But after the whole people of the Hebrews had fallen into the very pit of wickedness, then and thereafter was a written word, and tables, and the admonition which is given by these.

And this one may perceive was the case, not of the saints in the Old Testament only, but also of those in the New. For neither to the apostles did God give anything in writing, but instead of written words He promised that He would give them the grace of the Spirit: for "He," saith our Lord, "shall bring all things to your remembrance." And that thou mayest learn that this was far better, hear what He saith by the Prophet: "I will make a new covenant with you, putting my laws into their mind, and in their heart I will write them," and, "they shall be all taught of God." And Paul too, pointing out the same superiority, said, that they had received a law "not in tables of stone, but in fleshy tables of the heart."

But since in process of time they made shipwreck, some with regard to doctrines, others as to life and manners, there was again need that they should be put in remembrance by the written word.

Special prayer for deliverance from the coronavirus epidemic by the Romanian Patriarchate

Lord, our God, Who are rich in mercy, and with your wise providence govern our life, hear our prayer, receive our repentance for our sins, stop the new infectious disease, as You once ceased the punishment of Your people in the time of King David.

You, Who are the Physician of our souls and bodies, grant recovery to the sick, raising them hastily from the bed of suffering so that they may glorify You, our Merciful Saviour, and protect the healthy ones from any disease.

Bless, O Lord, strengthen, and protect with Your grace all those who with philanthropy and sacrifice take care of the sick at their homes or in hospitals.

Remove all disease and suffering from among the people and teach us to value life and health as Your gifts.

Give us, O God, Your peace and fill our hearts with steadfast faith in Your protection, with hope in Your support and with love for You and our neighbour.

For it is Yours to have mercy on us and save us, our God, and to You we give glory: to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit, now and ever and unto the ages of ages. Amen.

Lord Have Mercy, Lord Have Mercy, Lord Have Mercy!
